During your check-in to the resort, you will be issued an “all inclusive bracelet”. It must be worn at all times to allow the relevant resort staff to provide you with any item or activity included in your package. Please be aware that the loss of your bracelet will result in the termination of your all inclusive rights. The resort may charge USD 25.00 per day for its replacement, so please guard your bracelet carefully.

Should you wish to invite guests or staff for drinks, or any other item included in your all inclusive package, you must purchase them at the standard rate. Please be aware that any all inclusive guest abusing the system by failing to comply with the regulation will be dealt with most severely. The act of falsely obtaining any free service for non-all inclusive guests will be considered an act of theft, which will result in the intervention of local authorities as well as the offender’s immediate eviction from the island. A strict resort policy states that, in such instances, no refund can be made.

Should you have any questions regarding your all inclusive package, please contact our guest relations officers, reception or your tour representative.

We wish you a wonderful holiday in Kuredu Island Resort
